Our Ref: IMPA Seminar at the International Maritime Organization (IMO)

Date: 16 September 2022

IMPA Notice: 966

Dear Colleagues,

IMPA SEMINAR AT THE IMO, 1 NOVEMBER 2022

IMPA will be hosting a seminar at the IMO Headquarters on Tuesday 1st November 2022. This seminar is immediately prior to the 106th session of the IMO's Maritime Safety Committee (MSC). This is the first session of MSC that will take place in person at IMO Headquarters since 2019 and the Committee will consider a proposal from China to amend SOLAS regulation V/23 (MSC 104/15/23).

Details of the seminar have been circulated to IMO member States, international organizations and non-governmental organizations in IMO Circular Letter No.4630 attached to this notice. Further details are available on the IMPA Community Hub.

The IMO Secretary General, Mr. Kitack Lim, and our President will address the seminar before 3 presentations focusing on the work of pilots and the value of pilotage as a public service.

Action: Members are invited to make their national administrations aware of Circulate Letter No.4630 and to encourage their national delegations to be represented at the Seminar.

Yours sincerely

Matthew Williams
Deputy Secretary General
